September 2016

SEPTEMBER CHAMBER COFFEE HOST Henry County Fair Association

The Henry County Fair is happening in a new time slot this year, September 10 through 17.

The change came about due to our carnival, Dixieland Carnival, decided they weren't going to travel after the 2015 season. Their decision affected several county fairs in West Tennessee and left us all looking for a new carnival. After searching the Henry County Fair Board decided on Amusement Attractions as our new carnival and we changed our date. We are excited to experience this year's Fair as "A September to Remember."

The Henry County Fair is proud of the agriculture heritage of Henry County and the continued importance of agriculture to the county as well as the State of Tennessee. There are several events happening at the Fair to showcase, promote, and share agriculture. We have livestock at the Fair on all days except Monday with Wednesday night and Thursday being the biggest day's with the Jr. Livestock. This year we have added new events including a Fun Rabbit Show, Tennessee Chili Cook-off, a 4-H Fashion Show, a Downtown Paris Fashion Show and more. We have also brought back some events from past years: Wrestling, the Pet Show, and Watermelon eating contest. The Community Building will be filled with crafts, art, photography, canning, baked items, horticulture, sewing and numerous other exhibits. We encourage everyone to pick up a Fair Book and find a category where you can enter your own projects. This is a great place for children to share projects they have done over the past year. Think Bible School, camp, and school projects.

We are happy to again host the Chamber Coffee on Wednesday, September 14 and invite you to come. So make your plans to come to The Henry County Fair as there should be something for everyone during Fair week. SEE YOU AT THE FAIR!!!!
