FEBRUARY CHAMBER COFFEE HOST Tomorrow's Hope

What originally began as a dream and quickly progressed into a Pregnancy Crisis Center strictly for women back in 1998 is now a multi-faceted ministry which serves not only the mother, but the father and the rest of the family. In the years to come, many changes would take place, and in 2006 the Board of Directors decided to convert the Center into a Medical Clinic and to add Ultrasound services. The Grand Opening for the Medical Clinic was held in June of 2007.

Over the years, our services have grown to include Parenting, Life Skills, Bible Study, Anger Management, Pre-marital and Marital Counseling and Personal Counseling, just to name a few.

We are overseen by a group of individuals who are completely reliant upon the Lord for His guidance and direction. The Board of Directors serves as a covering of leadership, working closely with our Executive Director, Cheryl Conner, in making decisions, providing community awareness, and seeking God's direction in the distributions.

Along with Cheryl our staff includes:

Clinic Director-Kathy Ham,
Administrative Assistant -Wayne Clark,
Sonographer-Jane Poe and Amy Cervantes-Thrift Store Manager.

Without our 20-25 Volunteers we could not do what we do. The volunteers form the backbone of the ministry, filling positions from Client Advocates to clothes washers to donation sorters. Everything we do is committed to upholding the sanctity of human life through demonstrating the love of Christ to those affected by whatever life throws their way.
